Tea Brack

YIELD: 1 LOAF

Tea brack, or Irish Freckle Bread, is a moist, close-grained loaf packed with fruit and traditionally enjoyed at breakfast.

INGREDIENTS

1 cup (227g) brewed hot tea, like Irish breakfast tea
3 ½ cups (420g) Fruitcake Fruit Blend
2 ¼ cups (248g) King Arthur Irish-Style Flour
1 cup (213g) light brown sugar, packed
1 ½ teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon table salt
1 large egg
2 ½ tablespoons (35g) Sparkling Sugar

INSTRUCTIONS

1. In a small bowl, pour hot tea over dried fruit. Set aside to cool to lukewarm, about 1 hour.
2. Preheat oven to 325°F. Lightly grease a Tea Loaf Pan.
3. In a medium bowl, stir together flour, brown sugar, baking powder, and salt.
4. Add dried fruit and any remaining liquid. Stir until thoroughly combined; batter will be thick and stiff.
5. Add egg and mix until thoroughly combined.
6. Transfer to prepared pan and spread into an even layer. Sprinkle Sparkling Sugar evenly over top.
7. Bake for 1 hour, then tent with foil, and continue baking for 20 minutes until center of bread is set. A toothpick or thin knife inserted into center should come out clean with no clinging crumbs.
8. Remove from oven and let cool in pan for 15 minutes, then turn out onto a rack to cool completely before slicing and serving.
